Year 12 Trial Examinations

students arrive at school by 8.50am ready for class at 9.00am. This will enable students to make a positive start to learning each day.

Should your student need to sign out during school hours, a note is required to be handed into the Student Services Counter with a date, time, signature and valid reason for being signed out. We cannot sign students out unless the note has a reason on it. Sport is compulsory for Years 7-10 and a valid reason is required to sign out on a Wednesday afternoon.

By now all students should have settled back into the routine of school and be focused on trying to achieve excellent results for their yearly reports. Year 12 will commence their Trial HSC Exams on Monday August 10 and Year 11 will have their Preliminary yearly exams in weeks 9 and 10. These students should be developing their study plans to ensure they are well prepared for their exams.

Year Assemblies were held this week to give out Academic Awards to students from Year 7 through to Year 11. A big congratulations to all students who received awards for Semester 1.

Congratulations should also go to all the students who embraced the new 'normal' at Casino High School with regards to mobile phones and the Yondr pouches. Already, we have seen a significant drop in negative incidents being recorded by teachers and an increase in engagement by students within classrooms.

Rodeo Mayhem

The sound of cheering and screaming filled my ears as the barrel racer and her trusty steed ran out the gate and around the first barrel.

As I turned, in the corner of my eye I saw the colours of the fireworks fill the sky.

As I look around I can see the crowd going wild as the commentator reads out the final results.

I was at the Quirindi Rodeo with all my friends.

We couldn't stop talking about how we wish that could be us riding around those barrels, or pulling the rope tight as it goes around the calve's neck.

My only fear is that I won't be good enough!

The Party!

The sound of high pitched screaming fills my red,
throbbing ears.

I can see huge green slobbering monsters coming towards me and huge yellow teeth ready to bite me.

I feel disgusted and worried.

The taste of salty saliva hits me like a wave.

It hits me at the back of my throat.

I am touching the yellow teeth, grubby hands or are they touching me?

The feeling makes me feel like I'm half eaten.

The smell of salt makes my nose cringe.

I am being eaten!

Oh my poor cake friends and me.

I'm just a piece of cake!

Visiting Guest Speakers

Last week Mikey Day from Blackcomb Barbershop and Luke Simpson from Bundjalung Fitness joined with our very own Harold 'Bucky' Torrens, who works at our school, to speak to students from Year 11 and 12 about culture, respect and directed the TAP classes through some fitness routines.

After a BBQ lunch Mikey, Luke and Bucky spoke to us about their own personal lives and the importance of communicating respectfully as well as the importance of being a positive role model to others. Everyone enjoyed themselves and learnt something and we all appreciated them coming in and giving up their time to talk to us.
